COLUMBIANA FACTORY EXPANDS — William Imbrie, purchasing agent at the Kaiser Refractories plant in Columbiana, looks on as workmen of the Riley Construction Co. rush work on the new office addition. When the building is completed, it will be the headquarters for Kaiser Chemicals' eastern area sales office which is being moved to Columbiana from Pittsburgh. The move will mean the addition of 25 families to the district, some of whom already are residing in Columbiana and Salem. Harold Davidson, assistant to the director of sales for Kaiser Chemicals, will be in charge of the office.

GOP Okay of Test Pact Seen

Senate Spokesman Cites 'No Choice'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republicans have assessed the political implications of the limited nuclear test ban treaty and most are expected to wind up voting for its ratification.

An influential Republican senator, who asked not to be quoted by name, said he and a majority of his colleagues have reached the conclusion that "we can't afford politically to vote against this treaty."

"There are a number of risks involved that I don't like to see us take as a nation," he said. "But if the Joint Chiefs of Staff say that, on balance, it is acceptable—and I believe they will—we won't have any choice but to support it."

He attributed this in part to what he called the "mother vote," women who have feared that nuclear fallout might result in deformed children and who believe the treaty may eliminate this danger.

As a result, the senator said, after extensive hearings beginning Monday he expects to see opposition virtually collapse.

Democratic leaders have said they are confident of getting the necessary support of two-thirds of those voting. But they have been wooing GOP backing in order to attain overwhelming approval.

Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said he had 5,000 letters, divided equally for and against ratification.

Dirksen told a news conference Tuesday he had the Senate Republican Policy Committee staff poll the administrative assistants of 42 senators. He said the staff found 20 whose mail favored ratification, 14 whose mail opposed it and 8 evenly divided.

He said he had the survey made because of news stories saying White House mail was "lopsidedly" in favor of the treaty. Dirksen has declined taking any stand on ratification.

Among 32 Republicans, Dirksen said the mail was 14 to 12 favorable to the treaty, with 6 reporting a standoff. Among Democrats, he said the mail of six favored the treaty, that of two was opposed and that of two evenly divided.

The Republican leader said reaction ranged from 12-1 support of the treaty in a Democrat's mail to 9-1 against in one Republican's mail. He declined to identify any of the senators involved or to give their geographical location.

Another senator said, that most of the opposition mail was coming from the Midwest and Rocky Mountain states.

Senate Sends Bill to House

Armed Forces Pay Boosts Approved

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has approved unanimously a pay raise for practically everyone in the armed forces except recruits, apprentice seamen and privates with less than two years service.

The measure, which would increase military payrolls more than $1.2 billion a year, goes to the House, which has passed a similar but slightly less generous bill.

Usually a Senate-House conference committee works out differences between similar bills. But Sen. Howard W. Cannon, D-Nev., who steered the pay raise through the Senate Tuesday by an 84-0 vote, said he hopes a conference will not be necessary this time and that the House will accept the Senate bill.

The decision on what the House will do probably rests with Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, who rules with a firm hand.

The Senate and House bills would provide increases to most active duty personnel, to reservists and National Guardsmen and to those drawing military retirement pay.

The Senate version would cost $1,227,330,000 a year, about $5 million more than that of the House.

The increases—the first since 1958—would begin Oct. 1 under the Senate bill.

Under the Senate bill, enlisted men would get boosts of $5 to $120 monthly. Raises for officers would range from $60 to $120 monthly.

The Senate and House bills would provide similar increases for the U.S. Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey and Public Health Service, which base their pay on military schedules. This would cost the taxpayers an additional $30,084,000 annually.

Both would provide the largest dollar and percentage raises for lieutenants, captains, majors and lieutenant colonels among officers monthly.

Johnson Leads In Mississippi

Democratic Returns Coming In Slowly

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Lt. Gov. Paul Johnson, who once barred Negro James Meredith from the University of Mississippi campus, maintained a steady lead today in slowly mounting Democratic primary returns for governor.

With about 210,000 votes reported out of some 450,000 expected, Johnson kept his lead over former Gov. J.P. Coleman and young Charles Sullivan.

With 1,274 of the state's 1,882 precincts reporting, Johnson had 82,853 votes, Coleman 68,939 and Sullivan 57,787.

Robert Mason of Magee 65-year-old welder, was out of the running with 1,203 votes.

Because the long ballot—listing offices from governor to constable—must be hand-counted in all but 17 precincts, there were indications tight races may not be settled until nightfall or possibly Thursday.

Runoffs will be held Aug. 27 for races in which no one gets a majority.

Democratic nominees will go on the general election ballot Nov. 5. Republican opposition, including gubernatorial candidate Ruben Phillips, may pose a threat for the first time since the turn of the century.

Invaders Thrust Deeper Into Haiti

Rebels Trying To Cut Off North Coast

Another Landing Rumored Northwest Of Port Au Prince

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Gen. Leon Cantave was reported leading his Haitian rebel invaders in a southwest thrust beyond Cap Haitien today, apparently trying to cut off the north coast and northwest part of the Negro republic.

President Francois Duvalier airlifted at least 150 soldiers from Port Au Prince over the rebel lines to the vicinity of Cap Haitien, Associated Press correspondent Robert Berrellez reported from the Haitian capital.

Swelled By Deserters

The approximately 500 invaders, their ranks, reportedly swelled by Haitian army deserters, were said to be advancing in two columns after apparently deciding against storming Cap Haitien, 90 miles north of Port Au Prince.

An unconfirmed report said another rebel force had landed at St. Marc, a port about 40 miles northwest of Port Au Prince and due southwest of Cap Haitien, Haiti's second largest city.

Duvalier is known to have a strong post at Hinche, an inland city midway between Port Au Prince and Cap Haitien but separated from St. Marc by mountains.

Orders Investigation

In Washington, the Council of the Organization of American States Tuesday ordered its special committee on the earlier Dominican-Haitian dispute to investigate Haiti's new charges that the invaders came from the Dominican Republic. The nations share the island of Hispaniola.

Arturo Calventi, Dominican ambassador to the OAS, told the council that Haitian charges were unfounded.

Paul Verna, the invaders' spokesman in Santo Domingo, said earlier an island off the Haitian coast was the staging site for the invasion. However, a number of the officers of the invasion force had been living in Santo Domingo.

The Duvalier regime declared northeast Haiti—scene of the in-

Next Round Tougher

East-West Nonaggression Pact Faces Hard Going

WASHINGTON (AP)—As East-West negotiations go, the recent conclusion of a limited nuclear test ban treaty with the Soviet Union was a breeze. The next round won't be so easy.

Premier Khrushchev's insistent call for an East-West nonaggression treaty seems certain to provide the central issue in negotiations at the next stage.

The problem of finding out how the United States should approach those negotiations and what Khrushchev wants to accomplish in them is being explored by Secretary of State Dean Rusk in talks with top Soviet leaders in Moscow this week.

Khrushchev has made his main point clear. At the signing of the test ban pact Monday in Moscow he declared that "the next step, in our opinion, should be to conclude a nonaggression pact between the member states of NATO and the states belonging to the Warsaw Treaty."

While the United States position on this proposal is publicly flexible, American leaders undoubtedly are opposed to the pact in the form in which Khrushchev wants it.

The public flexibility is due to a desire here to keep Western negotiations with the Soviet government moving forward and to find out whether a modified nonaggression agreement acceptable to both sides might be worked out.

What course Khrushchev eventually takes depends on his real goals, about which Washington officials are uncertain. If, as many suspect, he is angling for some kind of recognition of Communist East Germany, the United States and its allies will face extreme difficulty in coming to terms with him in the next round. The Western powers do not recognize East Germany, a member of the Warsaw treaty.

In the view of some of the best informed authorities here a nonaggression pact would be meaningless except as a kind of good will gesture toward peace. All the countries which are members of the United Nations, including the Soviet Union and the United States, are already committed to non-aggression by the U.N. charter.

French President Charles de Gaulle has made clear his opposition to the proposed nonaggression pact—as well as his unwillingness to sign the nuclear test ban agreement.

It is understood that De Gaulle's

Action Taken By Board of Education

United Hires 5 Teachers

The United Board of Education hired five teachers at its meeting Monday night at the school.

The additional instructors complete the teaching complement for the 1963-64 school year, Chester A. Brautigam, superintendent, said.

Employed were:
John Calvin, former Lisbon resident who taught last year at a school in Missouri, as high school English instructor and supervisor of school publications.

William Thorne of Poland, fifth grade teacher and coach of fifth and sixth grade athletics and junior high football.

Mrs. Paul Gipp of the Newgarden Road, junior high science teacher.

Leonard Dougherty of New Castle, Pa., junior high physical education teacher and coach of junior high winter and spring sports.

Mrs. Loretta Everett of 311 W. 10th St., Salem, sixth grade teacher.

In other action, the board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Thomas Starkey who has accepted a teaching post in a Harrisburg, Pa., school where her husband serves as guidance counselor. Mrs. Starkey, who was on a leave of absence last year, previously taught English and algebra at United High.

The board also accepted the revised football schedule for 1963 and the basketball schedule for 1963-64.

The board approved the Columbiana County Public Health League's recommendation that all school employees undergo tuberculosis tests and accepted the bid of the Western Reserve Mutual Casualty Co. of Wooster to provide insurance coverage for the 18 school buses the system will operate this year.

PICKET AIR FORCE BASE
DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Demonstrators identifying themselves as from Antioch College in Yellow Springs picketed Wright-Patterson Air Force Base Tuesday with signs reading "Ban the Bomb" and "Refuse to serve in the Armed Forces."

About 20 persons were in the group. The demonstration lasted about a half-hour.

No One Hurt In 3 Road Mishaps

Five Columbiana County motorists involved in three district traffic mishaps Tuesday afternoon and evening escaped injury, the Lisbon barracks of the State Highway Patrol reported.

Cars operated by James Lee Phillips, 69, of RD 1, Leetonia, and Lloyd E. Louk, 28, of RD 1 Rogers sideswiped at 5:40 p.m. on Route 154 about one mile east of Route 7, causing moderate damage to the vehicles.

The patrol said Louk was turning left at the time Phillips was overtaking and passing the Rogers car when the collision occurred.

At 6 p.m. on Route 14, about three miles east of Route 7, an auto driven by Joseph Heid, 74, of 200 Main St., East Palestine, sideswiped a truck operated by Thomas A. Mullen, 28, of Warren.

Heid was traveling east and passing an unknown truck when his car struck Mullen's westbound rig, causing considerable damage to both vehicles. Heid was cited for passing without the assured clear distance ahead.

A car and truck, both northbound, also figured in a minor accident at 9:05 p.m. on Route 7, six-tenths of a mile south of East Liverpool. Edward Kenner, 39, of RD 1, Glenmoor, sideswiped a car operated by Roy F. Cline, 22, of East Liverpool.

PLANS TO APPEAL CASE

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — Asher Bogin, attorney for 17 Antioch College students convicted of trespassing at the Lewis Gegner barber shop in Yellow Springs, has confirmed he will appeal the case.

Bogin said he would file late this week. The students were fined $35 and costs and given suspended 30-day jail sentences last week for their part in a May 18 sit-in at the shop. The Antioch Committee for Racial Equality resumed picketing at Gegner's Tuesday in protest of his refusal to serve Negroes.

VOTE ON SCHOOL MERGER

ABERDEEN, Ohio (AP) — A record number of voters turned out Tuesday to vote on whether Aberdeen School District should merge with Manchester or Ripley—and Manchester won, 458-287.

The State Board of Education had revoked Aberdeen High School's charter because it did not meet qualifications. As a result of the vote, the Aberdeen District will be absorbed next July by Manchester.

SPARK CAUSES FIRE

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Penitentiary authorities say a spark from a welding torch caused the fire which did minor damage in the woolen mill Tuesday. The spark ignited lint in a ventilator on the third floor of the mill.

Inmate firemen had the blaze under control by the time city firemen arrived. Only damage was to raw materials used in making blankets.

TWO DRIVERS FINED

LISBON — George R. Zepernick, 72, Kensington RD, received a suspended $5 fine Tuesday in County Judge James L. MacDonald's court, when he pleaded guilty to failing to stop for a stop sign.

In another state patrol case, James A. Madison, 25, 343 E. Washington St., Lisbon, was fined $10 and costs when he pleaded guilty to speeding.

MR. AND MRS. OTIS Stoffer returned Tuesday from Dayton where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Monahan. They also called on Mr. and Mrs. William Crist in Farmersville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Wearstler of Alliance were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Stoffer.

PASTOR WILLIAM Pletcher of Vermilion-on-the Lake was guest speaker at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church in the absence of Pastor Wesley Runk who is on vacation.

Emmanuel Lutheran Church Women will hold their regular meeting Monday at 8 p.m. at the church. Mrs. Jesse Galbreath will present the topic and Mrs. Norman Morris is devotional leader. Each member is to bring an item for a layette to be sent overseas. Donnie Hoffman is camping this week at Geneva-on-the-Lake.

MR. AND MRS. MARION De Hoff of Beechwood were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hoffman. Other callers were Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hull of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. James Stanley of Louisville.

Jerry Planchock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Planchock is spending a month's vacation at inter-university Christian Fellowship Camp at Cedarhurst, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schneider attended the Canal Fulton Summer Theater Sunday.

in 1961 and $1,100 collected by Griffin for zoning permits, grave openings and cemetery lot sales from September 1960 through October 1962. False bills submitted amounted to $224.72, the report said, and added that the examiner also found that Griffin had collected $24.72 for two nights' lodging at a Toledo hotel during a summer convention but a check with the hotel failed to confirm him as a guest during the two days reported.

A copy of the report was turned over to the Trumbull County prosecutor.

The Granges

Midway To Meet

Midway Grange will meet in regular session Tuesday. There is some business to be transacted and all members are asked to attend.

Guilford Meets

Members of Guilford Grange met at the hall Saturday.

A committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Orva Walton was appointed to represent the grange at a meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the Winona Methodist Church to form a civic interest group to secure a doctor for the area.

Mrs. John Sell showed pictures taken in Africa, Greece and Germany sent by her son, Arthur, who is serving in the Armed Forces and is now stationed in Iran. Lunch was served by the home economics committee.

Next meeting will be at 8:30 p.m. Aug. 17 at the hall.

PROSECUTOR TO APPEAL

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The Montgomery County prosecutor's office, a loser before the 2nd District Court of Appeals Tuesday, indicated it would ask the Ohio Supreme Court to overturn the finding that condemned killer James Mike Gilkerson is entitled to a new trial.

The appellate court refused to reconsider its earlier decision calling for a new trial for Gilkerson, 43. Convicted of first-degree murder in July 1962 for the 1961 slaying of his wife, Gilkerson originally was scheduled to be executed last April 22.

Any Doubt Was Short-Lived

Ten years ago, the moon-faced man who then was premier of the Soviet Union, Georgi M. Malenkov, was writing a speech for the Supreme Soviet. It was to be delivered Aug. 8 and was designed to be a summing up of things in general.

When he began to talk on Aug. 8, no one had any inkling of the surprise in store. Tacked to the end of a long address, as if it might have been an after-thought, was this enigmatic statement: "The government deems it necessary to report to the Supreme Soviet that the U.S. has no monopoly in the production of the hydrogen bomb, either . . . Convincing facts are shattering the wagging of tongues about the weakness of the Soviet Union."

Skeptics scoffed. Know-it-alls sniffed. But Malenkov, now in political disgrace, knew what was coming. On Aug. 20, the Soviet Union exploded a hydrogen bomb, it announced, and a few days later the U.S.

Atomic Energy Commission confirmed the announcement.

The H-bomb monopoly had been broken. Previously, three atomic blasts had been detected between 1949 and 1951, evidence that the Soviet Union had broken the A-bomb monopoly.

Great Britain exploded its first hydrogen bomb May 15, 1957. France is believed to be several years away from exploding its first H-bomb. Red China is an indeterminate time away from qualifying for membership in the nuclear club.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., thought China might explode an H-bomb "anytime within this year"—early in 1962. Premier Khrushchev told Averell Harriman, U.S. undersecretary of state, he didn't think China would have nuclear capabilities anytime in the foreseeable future.

Anyone want to guess how many nations will be in the nuclear club by 1970?

Rehearsal For a Disaster

W. A. Patterson, president of United Air Lines, is alarmed at the possibility his industry may be building a disaster in overcrowded passenger planes.

He has suggested to the Civil Aeronautics Board that it should stage a simulated crash landing, preferably at sea, with a typical passenger list, in a plane as jam-packed as it would have to be to carry passengers at the cut-to-the bone fares being proposed for overseas flights.

His point is that test by Federal Aviation Agency have been unrealistic because passengers able to understand English and aware they were in no real danger.

President Patterson wants a "mixed" passenger list—old, young, fat, crippled, confused, scared, irresponsible and hysterical mixed with the cream of the crop. He thinks the demonstration would be conclusive.

Planes obviously are overcrowded. They carry too many passengers for comfort when all their seats are occupied, and the aisles are too narrow for safety even when some seats are empty.

How about that "mixed" passenger list and the element of surprise needed to prove his point: how would he do that? Here's a suggestion:

Make up a passenger list of U.S. senators, representatives, their wives and their children. Tell them it's an all-expenses-paid junket to Tahiti. Circle over National Airport in Washington until everybody gets drowsy, then announce a crash landing in the Pacific and come down close to shore in the good old Potomac River. Have launches and rescue equipment waiting.

Congress would adopt a joint resolution against overcrowded airplanes as soon as everybody has been released from the hospital and just before the investigation of the hoax about Tahiti.

No Seal of Approval

All the hopes raised by the nuclear test ban treaty with Russia are so tenuous and the ban itself so uncertain in its effect that other elements must have been the really important considerations.

One element plainly is desire to demonstrate that treaties are possible between the Western Powers and the Soviet Union. Even French President de Gaulle favors the idea of the treaty, though France is not going to sign it.

"Doing business with Russia has been an obsession with some Western statesmen. They were so anxious to prove they could make a treaty with Russia they seemed willing to make it on any subject at any cost.

THESE ARE THE people who keep pressing for summit meetings, whose purpose is to demonstrate their ability to get along with Real Neighborly...

One of the more imaginative attempts to get acquainted with city people is being made by the Washington Association of Wheat Farmers.

Citizens of the State of Washington or out-of-state visitors are being invited to free one-day "vacations" on wheat farms.

There are 1,000 farm families available to provide sight-seeing for a day and overnight accommodations. They want city folks to learn about their way of life and take this direct way of doing it.

Columbiana and Mahoning County district farmers might take a cue from this for next year and invite the visitors when they're needed the most—at harvest time.

Reds Breaking Up?

By Truman Twill

While our side drools over the mean things Communists are saying about one another, chances are the other side is letting itself think occasionally how funny their ideological squabble might turn out to be.

Ideological squabbles are as common as family quarrels.

They fool outsiders every time.

It's like our national political campaigns, in which the boys throw everything that isn't bolted to the floor. Foreigners think another civil war has begun.

They're always surprised when everybody kisses and makes up a few days after ballots have been cast. They didn't think the squabblers could be left in the same room together — and now they're going out to lunch!

NASTY AS THE political parties can get about each other, dirty words and blasphemy don't really fly until a fight breaks out inside the party. That is when mothers are well-advised to look up small children and impressionable talking birds.

Only then does the hot breath of truth blow away the fudge and fog and reveal the hatreds and animosities.

When it happens, those with their ear to the door turn white lest he chasm threatening to swallow the party never can be bridged over. Nervous Nellies predict the end of the cause.

The opposition lets its hopes soar.

Those of faint heart skitter for cover and are glad to be out of the line of fire. There is a bloody battle of press releases.

Unimpeachable sources are quoted about the forthcoming demise of the organization.

Then a halt is called and all the antagonistic squabblers are told to sit down and let their prehensile tentacles about each other in brotherly love and go fishing.

They always fish for the same thing — power.

They disagree about everything but the one thing that looms largest in their lives — love of office.

WHEN THE CHIPS are down, they do what families have done since time immemorial: they hang together.

Their quarrels are laid aside while they combine against the common foe. They do this in the United States. They do it among the Western Allies. They do it in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

They do it in the Democratic and Republican parties, and they do it in the international Communist conspiracy.

They do it all the time and it fools people all the time.

Russian and Chinese Communists are saying terrible things about each other. It looks as if all the Communists on earth must be locking horns over irreconcilable opinions.

"Goody, goody, goody," chatter the hopefuls. "The Communists are breaking up."

Like fun they are. They are held together by the strongest mucilage known to man—the lust for power. They will drink each other's bath water before they drink each other's blood.

Legality of 'Civil Rights Amendment' Challenged

By DAVID LAWRENCE

The 14th Amendment, on which the whole idea of "civil rights" legislation by Congress is largely based, is in precarious legal position. It now turns out that, at any time they wish, 51 per cent of the members of the two houses of Congress can wipe out the 14th amendment without submitting the matter to the President or to the State Legislatures.

The facts have been given new emphasis in a letter just written by Everett C. McKeage of San Francisco, a prominent lawyer active in the American Bar Association. He is at present a member of the California Public Utilities Commission and had been its president for two terms. He served previously as a judge of the superior court of his state.

McKeage's letter, which is published this week by U. S. News & World Report, points out that any lawyer can find the facts by examining pages 700 to 711 of volume 15 of the "United States Statutes at Large." He writes:

"Upon the face of these documents, it is clear and unequivocal that the 14th Amendment never was lawfully adopted. This conclusion of mine assumes for this purpose that the asserted ratifications by the 'carpetbag' governments of the Southern States were valid ratifications . . .

"However, and this is most important, Secretary of State Seward (in his first proclamation) stated that the states of Ohio and New Jersey, which had theretofore ratified the 14th Amendment, had subsequently withdrawn their ratifications.

"He pointed out that if these withdrawals by Ohio and New Jersey were valid, then the 14th Amendment had not been adopted, but that if these withdrawals were unlawful and invalid, the amendment has been adopted.

"On the 21st day of July, 1868, the Congress, by joint resolution, arbitrarily resolved that the 14th Amendment had become a part of the Constitution of the United States and directed the secretary of state to so proclaim. Obviously, the Congress proceeded upon nothing more than the information contained in the proclamation made by the secretary of state which was furnished to the Congress on the previous day . . .

"THESE DOCUMENTS to which I refer are documents which the Supreme Court of the United States has held that counts will not go behind. All that the Supreme Court of the United States needs to do is to look at these documents which show on their face the fraudulent claim that the 14th Amendment became a part of the federal Constitution . . .

"The Supreme Court of the United States has never said that this amendment was lawfully adopted. What it has said is that it will assume, without deciding, that the amendment was adopted. The court has further held that the question as to whether or not the amendment was adopted is a 'political' one with which courts will not interfere."

In 1962, however, the Supreme Court in a famous case on reapportionment broke the ice on a "political question" and reversed its previous position for the first time in nearly 90 years. McKeage recites these happenings and says in his letter:

"Therefore, it is high time that the Supreme Court undertake to adjudicate this issue of the validity of the 14th Amendment to the federal Constitution.

"There is a well-recognized rule of law — where several persons are about to undertake a matter — that until the required number of persons have signed the undertaking to make it binding, those who have signed may withdraw, but they may not withdraw after the required number have signed.

"In other words, New Jersey and Ohio, lawfully, could withdraw their ratifications if the constitutional number of states had not ratified the 14th Amendment at the time of such withdrawal."

MR. McKEAGE asserts that six of the Southern States allegedly ratifying the amendment did not have lawful governments, but he says:

"Swallowing all of this fraud and corruption, the official records, to which I have referred (withdrawals by Ohio and New Jersey), clearly reveal that the 14th Amendment was not lawfully adopted . . .

"I believe that people generally are becoming aware of the fraud that was perpetrated upon the American people by the reconstruction congress."

But how can the illegality now be removed? Since the Supreme Court continues to refuse to do anything about it, the problem reposes in Congress, which can undo by a joint resolution what it did originally by a joint resolution.

It took only a 51 per cent vote of both houses in 1868 to order the secretary of state to proclaim an amendment as adopted. It need take only 51 per cent today to declare the 14th amendment unlawfully adopted.

This could bring — after a two-thirds vote by both houses of Congress — the resubmission of the original or a revised 14th Amendment to the legislatures of the states for a legal ratification by three-fourths of their present number.

"The Thought That Terrifies Me About Khrushchev is That He Might Blunder Into Peace"

Peaceful Road to Sovietism

By VICTOR RIESEL

SANTIAGO, Chile
I have just driven in from the south. In that direction is the bottom of the earth. Far behind me are ice crag, fjords and penguins — the only living things which the Communist party of Chile has not taken a pass in its 50-year history.

Strange, but down under there is the oldest Communist party in history organized in 1913 by an ally of Lenin, a Chilean labor leader named Emilio Recabarren who later helped Lenin and Stalin launch the Communist International (the Comintern) and the Profintern (the first Communist global labor organization).

This Chilean Communist party today is respected here, though it openly takes its direction from Moscow. It hopes to be the world's first Communist party to take power legally — by winning the next election in September '64. It is quiet and dignified and calls its policy the "via pacifica" — the peaceful road to Sovietism.

Don't anybody count out the possibility that this party, in coalition with a turbulent, labor-backed Marxist Socialist party, has a chance to elect a president next year. It almost did in 1958, but lost by only 36,000 votes when a discredited clergyman ran and pulled some 50,000 votes from the Communist - Socialist - Marxist ticket.

OTHERWISE this nation with 2-600 miles of Pacific coastline, vast copper, nitrate, iron ore, oil and huge natural gas supplies — not to mention control of the Straits of Magellan would have been in the hands of extreme Marxists.

How does this party elect 5 senators and 16 deputies and roll up hundreds of thousands of votes? It is probably the best organized, most strongly disciplined Communist party in the free world.

It runs publishing houses, businesses, special public services and dominates considerable broadcasting facilities. But outside of Chile it is the least known Communist party.

So I thought I would visit its two-story, faded yellow squat corner building at 416 Teatinos St. I passed below the Red Star in which is nailed a hammer and sickle. I asked if I could wander about the building and courtyard but I was quietly and firmly turned back at the reception desk.

WITHOUT the de-red-taping experts, it can take months, perhaps a year, perhaps forever to get such a document. But the party's specialists know just how to get to the right desk.

Those who use these lawyers come away marveling with tales of the potency of party people. Those who don't get stuck.

There is also a Communist Association for the Protection of Children and a Committee for the Defense of the Homeless.

Quietly the Communist party wins friends — and it hopes — voters. A Communist political victory in '64 would stunt the continent, kick the political underpin-

It did not matter. I had made the rounds of some of its other facilities. It has a five-story graphic arts building. In it is an ultra-modern press purchased from West German manufacturers. Its linotypes have been

THE PARTY wants swift production. It plans to launch three new papers in the hinterland during the coming presidential campaign. It hopes to link all its dailies with an automatic typesetting system.

In addition to their daily newspaper, El Siglo, they publish monthly and weekly philosophical magazines. They influence seven other dailies in the country. They have a system of enticing young writers by publishing books which will tie the burgeoning authors to the party regardless of their own literary merit.

It influences one of the two television channels and at least one radio station.

It knows how to reach the people. Thus it owns 12 movie houses — two here and 10 throughout the country. These bring them income and give them a showcase for Soviet films.

THE PARTY has a good business head, too. It looks about for failing shops and factories. Then it buys them for comparatively few escudos. It builds them by bringing each the trade of the party members, or of other businesses it owns or of the bloc countries if possible.

Then it hands out jobs to build up new following for the party. My new friend, Senor Carlos Ibanez, head of the Chilean teamsters, told me that the Communists run a fleet of 300 taxis which they have bought for their members to drive for a living.

There is a messenger service, owned by the party. It makes a profit and obviously can be quite handy for poking the party nose into other people's businesses.

Everything is thought out. The touch of genius comes in the form of a service to cut red tape in government bureaus.

The Communist party headquarters has five lawyers. They are not Communists. Just specialists. They are retained to serve those who want to get a document from the government, or social security, or a license of some sort, or perhaps there is a police matter.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a 17-year-old boy with a perfectly sensible question which no one seems to be able to answer. So I'm writing to you.

Why do 50-year-old people refer to themselves as "middle-aged"? How many people live to be 100 anyway? My own idea is that middle age should be half of life expectancy, which puts it at about 35.

My own parents are in the 50-year-old group and they consider themselves middle-aged. Are they trying to kid themselves—or what? Please let me know what you think about this. It's been bugging me for a long time. — SPEAKER OF THE TRUTH.

Dear Speaker: When I was 17, I thought middle age was about 30. When I got to be 30 I shoved middle age up about 10 or 15 years — and I've been shoving it up ever since.

A Word of Appreciation

On July 29th while listening to the School Band and School Chorus of America concert in the Windsor Ballroom of Hotel Commodore, New York City, Mr. Miller and I wished that all of Salem could have been there, too, to enjoy the exceptional music these boys and girls were rendering.

The expressive musicianship under the direction of Edward T. Harn of Bloomington, Ill., was thrilling. The audience of parents, relatives and friends of the band and chorus members were brought to their feet many times in tribute during the two and one-half hour concert. Gary Hasson and Clyde Miller (of Salem) were privileged to be members of the chorus which had just concluded its tour of seven European countries, along with the band. Gary and Clyde were honored as two of the six soloists in the group.

Salem can be justly proud in financially supporting these boys. There were originally to have been 50 members in the chorus, but it consisted of only 36, as some communities did not help support this educational and cultural cause.

A recording of their concert was made in Strasbourg, France, in a modernly equipped television and radio studio, where acoustics are the finest. We hope that when we receive these records (one of the band and one of the chorus), that many of Salem's citizens might hear them, too, and be pleased about it all as we are.

Thank you, Salem, again for helping so wonderfully to add to the education and culture, and appreciation of these two boys.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I am a 17-year-old boy with a perfectly sensible question which no one seems to be able to answer. So I'm writing to you.

Why do 50-year-old people refer to themselves as "middle-aged"? How many people live to be 100 anyway? My own idea is that middle age should be half of life expectancy, which puts it at about 35.

My own parents are in the 50-year-old group and they consider themselves middle-aged. Are they trying to kid themselves—or what? Please let me know what you think about this. It's been bugging me for a long time. — SPEAKER OF THE TRUTH.

Dear Speaker: When I was 17, I thought middle age was about 30. When I got to be 30 I shoved middle age up about 10 or 15 years — and I've been shoving it up ever since.

Why all this preoccupation with age, Buster? I've said it before and I'll say it again... it's only a number. Baby.

Dear Ann: I have hunted everywhere for the newspaper that carried your column about an 11-month pregnancy. Will you please tell me when and where this happened?

My friend claims all pregnancies are about the same length of time and that people get confused for all sorts of reasons. I know she is wrong because I was pregnant with my second child for 11½ months.

Please settle this for us. Thank you. — J AND R.

Dear J and R: There was nothing in my column recently about an 11-month pregnancy. What you probably are referring to is a letter from a woman who complained because her friend could never get any place on time. She repeated the town joke — that Adele was an 11-month baby and has been late ever since.

Medical science has never recorded an 11½-month pregnancy. Maybe it just seemed that long.

International Affair

Dear Ann: Our son, Ron, is going to marry a fine girl whom I will call Anna Marie. She was born and reared in another country and her parents speak very little English. They are very foreign in their ways.

Please don't take my head off and tell me I am a snob. Our son is lucky to get this girl. Anna Marie is not only beautiful but she also is brilliant and talented. She already has obtained a teaching position on the staff of a conservatory and will help put Ron through law school.

The wedding will be held at a hall and the guests will be requested to bring money instead of gifts. This will appear on the invitation. I was mortified when I heard it but apparently it is the custom in Europe. My husband says to keep my nose out of it and let them do whatever they want.

I'm afraid when our family and friends get the invitations they will be shocked. Please tell me what to do. — M. M. M.

Dear M.M.M.: Take your husband's advice. Since you will provide the bride's mother with your guest list, you'll be able to phone or drop each of your guests a line explaining the European custom. Let them know there is nothing obligatory about it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

MISS LOUISE OSWALD, bride-elect of Tim Burchfield, has recently been entertained with a round of pre-nuptial showers.

Miss Linda Heston of 1079 Jennings Ave. was hostess at a personal shower Sunday at her home when 15 1960 graduates of Salem High School, former classmates of the bride, were guests.

The table was laid with a lace cloth underlaid with aqua. A floral arrangement of pink carnations and white daisies flanked by pink candles served as a centerpiece. Prizes were awarded to Miss Terry Reese and Miss Tink Porter.

A miscellaneous shower was given for Miss Oswald recently by Mrs. Wendell Goddard and Mrs. Ronald Moffett.

The gift table was decorated with a pink and white umbrella. Prizes were awarded to Miss Oswald, Mrs. F. B. Burchfield, mother of the bridegroom, and Miss Willa Collier.

Mrs. Frank Young of Chagrin Falls, aunt of the bride-to-be, also entertained recently with a miscellaneous shower.

Miss Oswald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oswald of 10th St., and Mr. Burchfield, son of Mrs. F. B. Burchfield of 5th St. and the late Mr. Burchfield, will be married in an open church ceremony at 2:30 p.m. Aug. 31 in the First United Presbyterian Church.

LONG AND BRICKER reunion will be held Sunday at Greenford Township L. E. Coy Memorial Park beginning with a covered dinner at 1 p.m. Beverage will be furnished.

ONE HUNDRED AND seventy-five persons attended an open house reception Sunday at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in celebration of the 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Youtz of S. Union Ave.

The tables, which were decorated in red and white, were centered with a four-tier anniversary cake topped with an open ceramic Bible inscribed with the name and wedding date of the couple. The cake and open Bible were made by a niece, Mrs. Perry Hillard, Jr.

Out-of-town guests were present from Alliance, Columbiana, Washingtonville, Lisbon, New Waterford, East Palestine, Hubbard, Youngstown, Canton, New Castle, Beaver and Beaver Falls, Pa.

SQUASHES, NOT GOURDS — Although appearing very much like gourds, the plant held by Linda Booth, 5, as well as the ones surrounding her, are really squashes, according to her father, Roy Booth of 490 E. 12th St. Booth explains that the gourd affect is a result of hybridizing of seeds of both summer and winter varieties. He says the "Booth hybrids" are tasty both baked and fried.

Engagement Told

Miss Roberta Garver

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Garver, Jr. of Eureka Rd., Columbiana, announce the engagement and coming marriage of their daughter, Roberta Grace, to James O. Romeo, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Romeo of Pittsburgh St., Columbiana.

Miss Garver is employed by the East Fairfield Coal Co. in North Lima. Her fiancé is employed by the A&P Tea Company in Columbiana and will leave for active duty with the Army Reserves early in October.

An open church wedding will take place at 6:30 p.m. Sept. 15 at the First Methodist Church in Columbiana. A reception will follow at the VFW Hall in Columbiana.

Marilyn Yoho Loses Out In Queen Event

Miss Marilyn Yoho, 19, of Berlin Center, representing the Salem area, was eliminated from state competition Tuesday in the "Miss World" contest at Avon Lake when the field was narrowed from 61 to 19 contestants.

The Salem bank clerk lost out by one point in the judging. Still in the running is "Miss Alliance," Georgia Tangie, 18.

The two area contestants were chosen to be interviewed by television station KYW and will be seen on Channel 3 at 7 tonight.

Area Beekeepers To Hear Speaker

John Lemmon, area bee inspector for the State Department of Agriculture, will discuss beekeeping practices at a meeting Aug. 14 at 7 p.m. of the Columbiana County Beekeepers Association at the Richard Howenstone residence, Alliance RD 5.

Anyone interested is invited to attend. Eldon Kerr of Homeworth, chairman of the county association, will preside.

Hints From Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise: When you are invited to a baby shower and a new baby gift is needed . . . present the mother with a set of sweater guards (found at the jewelry counter of most dime stores).

These are ordinarily used to hold a sweater when worn over the shoulders are wonderful when used to fasten a baby's bib. (Eventually the mother will learn to use a plain old wash rag as they can be washed and need not be ironed, they are terry cloth and absorb that goop.) They can also be used in any restaurant to clip the napkin in place over a child's clothes.

It's easy to carry in a purse as it takes up no room.

Just drape the napkin, a folded diaper or whatever you are using, around the child, clip with the gadget and no more problems.

If the mother prefers, three or four folded paper napkins . . . one a top of the other . . . will do a very adequate job.

VIRGINIA ORR.

DEAR HELOISE: I remove tea and coffee stains from my white linens by using color-remover brought from my local dime or drugstore. This product is also good for medicine stains on white dacron and nylon uniforms or those white drip cottons which have turned yellow after bleaching. Follow directions on package.

M. C.

DEAR HELOISE: Please tell me how to clean a plastic bubble pull-down shade? The plastic is very soft and thin as it is tightly stretched over the metal frame. I'm afraid to use any house hold cleaner as it may dissolve the plastic.

L. M. C.

Anyone know how to clean one of these? If so, do drop us a line on a postcard. We would love to hear how you clean YOUR shade.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Can you tell me what to do about warped records to make them good again. These are the old type.

MOTHER.

The best answer we have found for this — which some big companies use — is to lay the warped record between two pieces of glass, (such as comes out of a picture frame) and lay this in the sun on a flat surface. The heat from the sun will usually correct the warped problem. Be sure and let the record cool while it is still between the two plates of glass.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Did you know that salt mixed with turpentine will restore the whiteness to enamel surfaces? It's so.

ART CLEVE.

DEAR HELOISE: If the grill on your oven burns after cooking a steak, etc., while it is STILL HOT take your box of salt and pour salt on it. Let this sit awhile. Then cool, clean as usual with a piece of steel wool or a hard scrub brush. It's the easiest way to clean our grill that I know of.

OSKAR WHILE

DEAR HELOISE: A year ago, I received a large carton of pecans. I was advised to shell them, put them in a plastic bag and store them in the freezer compartment of my refrigerator. This is exactly what I did. I still have some left, and they are as fresh and sweet as though just picked and shelled.

JOHANNA LUTTINGER.

DEAR HELOISE: After eating spaghetti, pizzi and the like (or any other messy food for that matter), I have found that a little talcum powder applied to the spot on the garment dries up the grease and leaves no stain. It may be washed as usual afterwards.

If the spot is very large I leave the powder on overnight and brush away with a clothes brush the next morning.

GLENDIA BAKER.

And did you know that powdered starch will do the same thing?

Mr., Mrs. James R. Reinehr, Wed July 13, Live In Illinois

Now at home at 1128 E. Northwest Highway Arlington Heights, Ill., following a wedding trip to Wisconsin are Mr. and Mrs. James R. Reinehr.

The bride, formerly Karen Merschdorf of Prospect Heights, Ill., is the daughter of Mrs. Martin Merschdorf of Mansfield and the late Mr. Merschdorf. Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Reinehr of Columbiana are the parents of the bridegroom.

Nuptial vows were exchanged by the couple at a double-ring, closed church ceremony July 13 at the First Methodist Church in Arlington Heights. Rev. Gerald Robinson officiated.

Given in marriage by her brother, Richard Merschdorf, the bride wore a floor-length gown of silk peau de soie designed with a bell-shaped skirt. Embroidered motifs highlighted with seed pearls embellished the front of the matching jacket which had elbow-length sleeves.

The bride's veil of silk illusion was held by a small pillbox headpiece trimmed with flowers and pearls matching the trim on her gown. Her modern cascade bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Donna McKee was maid of honor and David Reinehr, brother of the bridegroom, was best man by proxy.

Following the ceremony, a buffet dinner was served at a restaurant in Arlington Heights.

The bride, a graduate of Mansfield Senior High School, received a bachelor of science degree in education from Kent State University and is a fourth grade teacher in Mt. Pleasant, Ill.

Her husband, a graduate of Columbiana High School, received a bachelor of science degree in commerce from Ohio University and served as first lieutenant in the Armed Forces for three years. He is now employed in the industrial sales department of the Thermofax Corp. Div. of 3M in Chicago.

Smith-Ramsey Vows To Be Exchanged

Open church will be observed at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the First Methodist Church when Miss Miriam Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Smith of 990 N. Ellsworth Ave., becomes the bride of David Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ramsey of RD 5, Alliance.

An open reception will follow at the church.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT
Get Sunshine In Moderation

Now is the season when the sun rays is to cause thickening of the skin and it is this thickening rather than the tanning that protects your skin from burning. Furthermore, it is the thickening rather than years of life that ages your skin, gives it a weatherbeaten look, produces wrinkles and may even induce skin cancer, which is almost never seen on the unexposed area of the skin. It has been said that there can be no gain without a relative loss and here we have a perfect example. No one should completely avoid exposure to sunlight. But, on the other hand, it is wise to use moderation and not go all out to try to get the deepest tan on the beach.

A FOURTH EFFECT of the sun's rays is due to the infrared component. This causes the well-known sunburn, and it is foolhardy not to take steps to avoid it. Many of the sunburn preventive creams and lotions now contain DHA (dihydroxyacetone) which is supposed to give you a tan the easy way.

The tan it gives you, however, is strictly synthetic. It results from an interaction between the DHA and the acids of the outer skin layers. This type of tan, since it does not thicken the skin, does not protect your skin from burning.

The sunscreen chemicals in the protective lotions will not give you complete protection either, but they will absorb some of the harmful rays and thus give you partial protection.

So before you buy a cream or lotion don't just listen to the commercial—read the label as well. The best sun-screens contain para-aminobenzoic acid, one of its derivatives or digalloyl trioleate. These lotions should be applied every two hours if you are sitting or lying in the sun. If you go in swimming it must be re-applied when you come out of the water.

THE BEST thing that can be said for the tan you get out of a bottle is that it is harmless. But, on the debit side, it has been observed that on some skins the effect is a yellow or orange discoloration rather than a tan and may appear streaked or mottled.

As far as the physiologic need for sunlight is concerned, the average adult can get enough of the beneficial effect by walking bareheaded in the sun for half a mile once a day.

This is in no way meant to imply that that should be the upper limit of your exposure but if you want to stretch out on the beach for an hour or so, I think I'll just sit here in the shade and read a good book

Park Board Okays Swim Pool Repairs

The Salem Park Commission Tuesday night gave authority to a Youngstown architect to complete plans for an estimated $15,000 improvement in the Centennial Park pool's circulating system.

The new re-circulation system will be installed to replace the present, 10-year-old system which, according to C. F. Tomlinson, superintendent of parks and recreation, has deteriorated beyond repair.

Arsene Rousseau, Youngstown architect, was given a green light to draw up final plans and specifications for the improvement and to advertise for bids. Tomlinson said the commission hopes to open bids the first week in September so that work may proceed as quickly as possible.

Plans call for the removal of the re-circulating lines inside the present tunnel and the installation of two, water-resistant, transite lines in the floor of the pool. Water will be distributed from 52 points in the bottom of the reservoir.

The tunnel will then be used to return water to the filters after the new lines are put in, Tomlinson said.

The approximate $15,000 job will include sandblasting the pool and patching any chipped or damaged concrete.

and corporals, sergeants and other skilled technicians in the enlisted grades.

But the Senate bill would apply some of these boosts to young officers and noncoms with less than two years service and give them larger increases at times in their careers when they face the decision of re-enlisting or returning to civilian life.

The House version would limit pay increases to active personnel with more than two years service. Its theory was that many short termers are merely serving out an obligation resulting from the draft.

Approved for the first time by both Senate and House is an extra $55 a month for any officer or enlisted man on cold war duty who is subject to enemy fire or similar hazard in such places as Viet Nam and South Korea.

GEM QUEEN — Daphne Solomon, 19, gem queen of Ceylon, East's center for precious and semi-precious stones, quite appropriately wears jeweled tiara, earrings and collar piece.

MISS INDIAN AMERICA — Willamette Belle Youpee of Poplar, Mont., was chosen Miss Indian America at the 10th annual All-American Indian Days celebration at Sheridan, Wyo. She is a student at Montana State College. Her Indian name translated is "mean but kind woman."

County 4-H Band To Give Concert

The Columbiana County 4-H Band will present a concert Saturday at 8 p.m. at the East Rochester homecoming at the West Local School, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

The 4-H band won the "best musical unit" trophy in the Morgan's raid celebration parade last Thursday in Lisbon. The 4-H's also participated in the Highlandtown homecoming and won the top prize for bands there.

The band is preparing for a performance on Columbiana County youth day at the county fair Aug. 22. The group has been invited to return again to take part in a large concert of all area bands Sunday afternoon, Aug. 25.

Following the county fair, the band will travel to Columbus Aug. 26 to perform at the Ohio State Fair Aug. 27.

The band is under the direction of William Justice of Columbiana. Justice will be a senior at Youngstown University's Dana School of Music this fall.

2 Sentenced In Ratterman Conspiracy

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Edward J. Buccieri and Charles E. Lester have been sentenced to a year's imprisonment for conspiring to violate the civil rights of Campbell County Sheriff George Ratterman.

A U. S. District Court Jury convicted them Tuesday on the conspiracy charges but acquitted them of charges of carrying out the conspiracy by bringing about Ratterman's arrest in the company of a striptease dancer. Four other defendants were acquitted on both charges.

Minutes after the verdict was returned, the attorneys for Buccieri and Lester, himself an attorney, filed notice of appeal with Judge Mac Swinford. Judge Swinford set bond of $5,000 for both men and it was posted promptly.

Those cleared of all charges were Tito Cjirinci, Buccieri's former partner in operating the Tropicana Night Club in Newport, and three Newport policemen — Chief Upshere White and detectives Patrick Ciafardini and Joseph Quitter.

All six were tried on the same charges last summer, but the trial ended with a deadlocked jury. The second trial began July 15 and the jurors started deliberating Monday.

Election

heightened interest in the campaigning, at the last minute.

The vote-ins came after a campaign based largely on each candidate's claims that he was best equipped to fight for segregation and against the Kennedy administration.

Gov. Ross Barnett, ineligible under state law to succeed himself, honored Mississippi tradition by taking no public part in the campaign to name his successor.

Johnson, making his fourth try for governor, based his campaign largely on his part in the Ole Miss desegregation crisis last fall.

On one occasion, when Barnett was unable to reach the university in time to turn back Meredith, Johnson stood in for the governor and personally barred the entrance to the campus.

Johnson, 47-year-old Hattiesburg attorney, still faces federal contempt of court charges for blocking Meredith after Meredith won a court order directing the state to admit him.

Both Coleman and Sullivan charged the brief encounter was rigged and ineffective, because Meredith registered the next week.

Many of the unreported votes were from heavy-voting urban precincts that frequently do not follow the pattern of rural precincts in the same counties.

Coleman, 49, and Sullivan, 38, were expected to run well in the cities with big votes.

The Negro vote-ins were called a protest against racial practices and prevailing political sentiments in the state.

At Greenwood, in north Mississippi, 285 Negroes turned in pre-marked ballots and affidavits saying they were illegally denied registration.

Villages wishing to participate in the commission are assessed a total of one cent per citizen within the village limits.

Mayor Harold said an appointee would be named to attend the regional meetings beginning in September.

Clerk George S. Snoke read a letter from the board of public affairs seeking council's permission to erect an addition to the public affairs garage on S. West St. at a cost of approximately $10,500, replacing a wooden structure which has become a fire hazard.

A motion was made instructing Solicitor Jack Kuhlman, now on vacation, or his assistant, Atty. Lawrence Stacey, to draw up a resolution to advertise for bids for the proposed addition.

tial invasion Monday—a war zone and imposed a nighttime curfew on Cap Haitien.

Port Au Prince, Duvalier's stronghold, did not reflect war tensions, Berrellez reported in a censored dispatch. He said bars and cafes were open and thousands of Haitians strolled the streets as usual.

The Haitian government radio warned American to pull out of the war zone, but the approximately 20 American families on sisal plantations near Phaeton were believed in no immediate danger.

Reports reaching the U.S. State Department said the Americans did not pull out. Glion Curtis Jr., U.S. charge d'affaires in Port Au Prince, advised the State Department he contacted the families and "they seem to be experiencing no problem as the result of any military operations in the vicinity."

County Drought Aid Bid Withdrawn

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes withdrew a request today for federal designation of 20 Ohio counties as a drought area.

A telegram to U. S. Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman said rains have alleviated the problem.

Rhodes made the request last July 21 but said no reply had been received. Rhodes acted after Ohio Agriculture Director John Stackhouse advised that recent rains had come to the rescue of the dry areas.

Federal designation would have authorized farmers in the 20 counties to harvest or graze soil bank acreage.

The counties were Ashtabula, Athens, Belmont, Columbiana, Gallia, Geauga, Hocking, Holmes, Knox, Lake, Lorain, Meigs, Noble, Perry, Portage, Richland, Stark, Trumbull, Tuscarawas and Wayne.

Man Held In Jail

LISBON — David H. Stokes, 25, Salem RD 5, is being held in the county jail on a non-support charge following his apprehension in Leontia Tuesday night after he had fled from Lisbon police who were trying to serve him with the non-support warrant.

Stokes eluded Lisbon police by driving through alleys but was later caught by Leontia police and returned to the county jail.

Chief Leon Zahndt said charges of reckless operation and failing to obey a police officer have been filed in mayor's court against Stokes but may be dropped if he is sentenced on the non-support charge.

An assault and battery charge was filed last week against Stokes in Mayor Dean Stockman's court by his estranged wife but the mayor dismissed it.

Police Hold 2 In Youngstown Attack

YOUNGSTOWN — Police arrested two Youngstown men yesterday and said they admitted holding a special policeman at a roller rink while a third man beat the officer with his own mace.

The policeman, Charles Hall, 47, is in fair condition at South Side Hospital with a fractured skull, deep head and face lacerations and bruises. He was beaten and kicked unconscious as 200 persons watched, when he attempted to break up a brawl in front of Mack's Skating Club at midnight Monday.

100 Attend Rotary Club Annual Picnic

Approximately 100 persons attended the annual Rotary Club picnic last evening at the Salem Country Club.

Races and other games were enjoyed by the children and a softball team composed of fathers and sons, captained by George Baillie Jr., defeated another father-son squad, captained by Elliot Hansell 9-8.

Port Huron, Mich., is as far east as Greenville, S. C.

Mahoning County To Widen Roads

Mahoning County Engineer Samuel Gould Jr. will begin a six-year program in 1964 to widen 180 miles of county highways.

County commissioners approved the plan yesterday after Gould reported he was alarmed at the rate of traffic growth on the county's 500 miles of paved roads and the fact some of them are only "cow paths" in relation to 1963 traffic.

The new pavement will average 24 feet in width. Current average is 16.

Pact

stand, taken in a news conference July 29, has been affirmed in a message he sent this week to President Kennedy. De Gaulle is reported to have told Kennedy that France does not intend to sign the test ban treaty—even at the price of U.S. aid for France's nuclear program.

The Kennedy administration's approach to the next phase of negotiations with the Soviet Union is to try to broaden the nonaggression issue to embrace larger questions of European security.

The principle point of conflict is Berlin. The United States would like to see Khrushchev eliminate the possibility of a new Berlin crisis by agreeing to forego the use of threats or pressure on West Berlin or its supply line.

Another counter-proposal being talked about by officials here would call for Khrushchev to agree to some kind of inspection procedures east and west of the dividing line in Europe in order to reduce the dangers of surprise attack.

Whether further talks between the United States and the Soviet Union can produce some formula for bringing these conflicting purposes together into a single agreement is problematical. Officials think that Rusk may have some clues when he returns to Washington this weekend to report to President Kennedy.

textile industries especially — shows signs of rallying.

Some trade observers question the wisdom of retaliation. They say the situation is far too complicated to be solved merely by acting tough.

Others agree with Sen. Frank Carlson, R-Kan., that the United States might be "out-traded and sold down the river unless we adopt a hard line."

This kind of tariff raising reverberates around the non-Communist world because of international trade rules that say all cuts and boosts must be applied to everyone.

Most observers doubt there will be more than a round or two of tariff retaliations. Still, they say, negotiations can be expected to move pretty slowly. Negotiators on both sides will be defensive, cautious and sensitive to public opinion.

In the early post-war years, Americans grew progressively warm toward liberalizing world trade. The idea of "trade, not aid" to get ravaged nations going again was appealing. When low-priced imports began brightening American shop counters, buyers were pleased anew.

Then, early this year, France vetoed British membership in the Common Market. Complaints were lodged against American investments in Europe.

France asserted its ambitions to sell its farm surpluses to Common Market neighbors. American negotiators, asking that farm goods be tied to industrial goods in trade talks, hit a brick wall.

Then German farmers asked protection against the cheap chickens of America's automated hatcheries. They got a higher levy. When American negotiators complained, the tariff was hiked even higher.

With Patients

Three persons were treated and released Tuesday at Alliance City Hospital for injuries they received in separate miscellaneous accidents.

Patricia Smarr, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smarr of Deerfield, was treated at 8:55 p. m. for injuries received when a dog clawed her face.

Mrs. Gladys Wyss, 63, of RD 1, Homeworth, was treated at 7:10 p. m. after she cut both wrists while washing dishes.

Merle MacPherson of Lisbon, an employee of the Beloit Milling Co., received a compound fracture of the right hand which he caught in a roller at work. He was treated at 10:50 a. m.

Fire Belles At Rogers Plan Event

ROGERS — Mrs. Dorothy Hill was appointed interim secretary Tuesday night when the Fire Belles, auxiliary of the Rogers Volunteer Fire Department, met to discuss plans for the concession at the Columbiana County Fair Aug. 22-26.

Mrs. Hill was named to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Keith Cope, who is moving to New Waterford.

The seven members present completed the menu for the fair booth and voted to serve a plate lunch and dinner Sunday, Aug. 25. Mrs. Norma Dyke was chosen to contact firemen to request the tent be erected Aug. 20.

Mrs. Leo Jenkins, president, reported that all men and women who will work at the concession must get chest X-rays. She also reported on refreshments to be served.

Mrs. Dyke and Mrs. Harley Walters reported on the purchase of pies for the fair after they presented their respective secretary's and treasurer's reports. July bills totaling $42.45 were approved for payment.

A special meeting will be held Aug. 14 at the home of Mrs. Jenkins to make final fair plans and conduct other business.

Procedure Set for Pupils Quitting School

LISBON — County Superintendent James L. McBride reported today that a new procedure is being set up in the four county school systems — Beaver Local, Fairfield-Waterford, Southern Local and United — for high school students who wish to quit school.

Students who seek to quit must see the guidance instructors at their schools. He will help them file applications which must be signed by their principals and then presented to the county office for working permits.

All the local guidance counselors will be at the schools about a week before schools convene, Superintendent McBride said.

NON-FICTION

SO YOU WANT TO GO INTO JOURNALISM by Leonard James Ryan and Bernard Ryan, Jr. This is an unusually interesting and well-written career book. Typical of the style is a sentence from the introduction - "But you don't really have to be a little nuts to want to make journalism a career. Nowadays, it won't hurt if you're a little bright. We hope this book will help to make the point."

THE SCIENCE OF DREAMS by Edwim Diamond. This is a layman's history of the research which has been and is being done on the significance of dreams in the life of an individual. The author is an editor of Newsweek magazine.

AMERICAN POLITICAL PARTIES by Wilfred E. Binkley. A new edition of this standard work on the history of our political parties carries the narrative through the presidential election of 1960. The author is a professor at Ohio Northern.

THE SEVENTEEN BOOK OF ETIQUETTE by Enid A. Haupt. This "different" etiquette book is both new in approach and wide in coverage. It covers not only manners and poise but dating, entertaining, tact, speaking, telephoning, and many, many other points.

THE PLANETS by Patrick Moore. Mr. Moore is a British astronomer who is not only a leader in his field but has the happy faculty of being able to write clearly, simply and interestingly about his specialty. He wrote a book published in 1957 called "Guide to the Planets" - so fast has astronomy moved in the intervening six years that he chose to write a whole new book rather than to revise the other.

FAMOUS FIGHTERS OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR, Second Series, by William Green. Almost innumerable drawings and photographs illustrate this second book in Mr. Green's series about World War II fighters. The text is also well done, being brief and explicit, providing a wealth of information.

FAMILY DOG by Richard A. Wolters. With many photographs and interesting text, the author shows how he trained his Labrador puppy and his daughter to work and play together with the result that the family now has a perfectly trained dog. He begins when the puppy is seven weeks old.

THE ART OF MAKING GOOD COOKIES, PLAIN AND FANCY by Annette Laslett Ross and Jean Adams Disney. Here are enough recipes and suggestions for the most avid cookie-baker. There are also hints on kinds to mail, how to package for mailing and how to gift-wrap cookies attractively.

ART IN THE WESTERN WORLD by David M. Robb and J. J. Garrison. This is the fourth edition of a standard history. The first section is devoted to architecture, the second to sculpture and the third to painting. Three additional chapters are on the minor arts.

AMERICAN COINS by Hugh McCown Knight. This is a revised and enlarged edition of the author's earlier book described as a simplified guide.

MINING FRONTIERS OF THE FAR WEST by Rodman W. Paul. Mr. Paul has done a fine service to the history of this country by bringing together the accounts of all of the principal mining ventures of the West and relating them to each other and to the remainder of the country, also he shows the relationship of supply centers to the success or failure of various ventures. This is a new approach.

I OWE RUSSIA $1,200 by Bob Hope. More of the comedian's travels, adventures and jokes.

LEE AFTER THE WAR by Marshall W. Fishwick. There is much that is new to us about Robert E. Lee in this biography for it is as President of Washington and Lee and as a person that we read of him here.

FICTION

WHEN BLACKBIRDS SING by Martin Boyd. When World War I broke out Dominic Langton left his wife to manage their remote farm in Australia and returned to England to enlist. His experiences were similar to millions of others who have endured war, but in him they only created a hatred of war and its futility. The author will be remembered for his novel "Lucinda Brayford".

THE GRAND AND THE GLORIOUS by Dan Cushman. It is the Fourth of July in 1916 and the big excitement in Altoona, Michigan, is a race between an automobile and an airplane. Of course there are a lot of other goings-on, and all of them turn out to be funny when Dan Cushman tells them.

DAY OF THE DOG by Michael Frayn. A collection of pieces which originally appeared in the Manchester Guardian, and which are humorous and witty. Some of the humor may seem a bit far-fetched to American readers, and some of it not even very funny, but some pieces are entirely delightful.

OUR MOTHER'S HOUSE by Julian Glog. Seven London children lose their mother, the only parent they have ever known, and for fear of the orphanage decide to conceal the death. Out sides become curious, they quarrel among themselves, many troubles plague the children, but somehow the author makes them believable and poignant.

A SENSE OF REALITY by Graham Greene. Four short stories by a much-admired English author who has written chiefly novels until very recently. The longest one "Under the Garden" is an interesting bit of fantasy.

THE NONESUCH by George Heyer. Miss Heyer again uses the Regency period which she knows so well for a story of no particular historical significance but a faithful picture of a period.

BORN WITH THE DEAD by Irina Kirk. An American newspaperman in Shanghai during the time when it was taken by the Japanese tells the story of his own adventures and of the refugees who lived there and yearned for their homes.

MANIFEST DESTINY by Russell Laman. This is a long but powerful story of Kansas, of its settling, its problems and struggles, and of its people who lived all of these events with their entire beings. The author is speaking of his own background and his own family in the telling and so it seems to take on added intensity.

DESERT WATER by Victoria Lincoln. A collection of seven short stories, each introduced by a poem, which probe deep into the human heart and which taken all together show that hope never dies.

Loys Masson. The setting for this prize-winning French novel is in Mauritius, an island in the Indian Ocean which belongs to Britain, but whose people are largely French. The action revolves around a little boy, an orphan, who is dying largely because the adults around him cannot understand him or give him the love he needs, although they all try desperately to do so.

THE BEADLE by Pauline Smith. A novel of the Dutch settlers in the Cape colony of Africa. There is much that is quaint and charming about the ways of these people, and the author, although English, knows them well. There is a large family plus the servants who are really more a part of the family. The plot concerns one of the maids especially, who falls in love with a visiting Englishman and is betrayed by him.

In the Service

Paul K. Rice, communications technician seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Rice of RD 2, Leetonia, is serving with the Naval Security Group at Kamisaya, Japan. He recently reported for duty at the command post.

David F. Lamb, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Lamb of 382 Benton Rd., is undergoing nine weeks basic training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. In Arabia, coffee is flavored with cardamom, clove, cinnamon or anise.

Office Feuds

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The average business office today is pictured as a place full of team spirit, where everybody selflessly labors for the good of the corporation.

The truth is, however, that beneath the serene surface lurk feuds every bit as venomous as the one that split the Hatfields and the McCoys.

The reason there are so few murders in the office is that it is difficult for the employees to stab each other to death with the only weapons readily available—paper clips.

What lies behind these wordless antagonisms? If you check your own office, you might find the following feuds typical:

The second vice president is miffed at the first vice president because the first vice president has one more window in his office than the second vice president has in his.

In 1942, the sales manager borrowed $1.50 in lunch money from the assistant treasurer and forgot to pay it back. The assistant treasurer hasn't spoken to him since. In 1938 the personnel director asked pretty young Miss Maria O'Callahan to stay late to type a couple of letters when she was trying to hurry to meet her date. The date didn't wait for her, and Miss O'Callahan now thinks, 25 years afterward, that it is the personnel director's fault she became an old maid.

Mrs. Adele Rankle, secretary to the boss, glares frigidly every time Ronald Adenoid, the stock room clerk, thumps a package of copy paper on her desk. She remembers that, back in 1954, Ronald, then a brash new office boy, told her to go fly a kite when she asked him to please clean out her pencil sharpener.

Every girl in the office snubs Gerald Pincher, the tightwad bachelor playboy, because he lives up to his name. He always tries for a free pinch—never takes them out to dinner.

Elmer Eager, the eagle-eyed efficiency expert, pads constantly about the desks in tight-lipped quest like a mute ferret. He is sure each employee is getting away with something he shouldn't—and Elmer is furious because he can't find out what it is.

TV Highlights

1939, the year he got his last merit raise, and all he said then was, "Well, it could have been more." Yep, that's the office gang, just one big scrappy family. Snarling onward and upward together. It's their feuds that give the spirit to the place.

Columbiana Rotarians Hear District Official

COLUMBIANA — S. N. McIntosh, district governor of Rotary district 665, was the featured speaker at Monday's Rotary Club meeting. He spoke on the organization's four avenues of service, which include community service, club service, vocational service and international service.

According to McIntosh, there were 257 new Rotary Clubs chartered last year. Clubs have now been established in 127 different countries of the world.

McIntosh commented on the Rotary slogan for the year, "Kindle the Spark Within", which was chosen by Rotary International President, Carl Miller, of Los Angeles. He urged the club to remain active in the project which teams clubs in the United States with clubs in foreign countries. The local club is a partner of a 34-member club in Toowoomba South, Queensland, Australia.

Robert Blake was welcomed back into club membership following an absence of seven months.

There were two visiting Rotarians, Robert Seifried of Sandwich, Ill., and Dr. Hubert Clapp of Crookston, Minn. Dr. Clapp had as his guest, Adam Rudibaugh of Lisbon.

Robert Williams introduced Jesse Cartledge of Leavittstown, N. J.

Next week will feature the annual picnic for foster children of Columbiana County and their foster parents. Co-chairmen in charge of the event are Richard Berryman and Robert Williams.

Sub-committee members are Dr. K. P. Murphy, serving; Rev.

George Sweeney, coffee; William Newell, kitchen duty; Bob Hum, paper supplies; Fred Detwiler, lemonade; George Seederly, corn; Del Bailey, milk and ice cream; E. B. Dillon, sandwiches, and Robert Bertelson, pretzels and chips.

The following week's program Aug. 19 will be "Farmer's Night" featuring a steer roast to be held at Firestone Farms. Guests will be members of the Rotary Club of New Wilmington, Pa. E. B. Dillon is chairman for the event.

PLANS WERE MADE at Monday's Kiwanis Club meeting for the club to sponsor the Mills Brothers Circus Oct. 12 at afternoon and evening performances.

The annual Kiwanis Club family picnic will be held Aug. 19 at pavilion 2 of Firestone Park.

Rev. Harold Thiedt will present the program at the Salem Kiwanis meeting Thursday. An inter-club of Columbiana Kiwanians will also attend.

Don Longshore was a guest of Gay Zellers.

The following high school youths, members of the Columbiana Methodist Church, attended Senior High Institute at Camp Aldersgate last week: Janelle Brittain, Cynthia Dowdle, Jack Dowdle, Robert Husted and Jackie King.

Norman Husted will attend seventh - eighth grade camp this week.

Eileen Fulton, left, is the matinee Honey, Rochelle Oliver, center, takes over in the evenings and Barbara Dana, right, plays both matinee and evening in the road company production.

Tripp, Jose Named to New Mount Union Jobs

Robert W. Tripp, Mount Union College registrar for the past 16 years, has resigned to become a full-time member of the faculty. Succeeding Tripp as registrar will be James R. Jose, a 1960 Mount Union graduate, who will also carry the title of administrative assistant.

Both men have Salem area connections.

Tripp is a native of Carrollton while Jose is a graduate of Goshen Union and is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Fred Jose of Community Center Dr., Damascus.

Jose was active as a Mount Union student: President of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and Interfraternity Council; representative on the Athletic Board of Control; and member of Blue Key and Pi Gamma Mu honoraries.

He earned his master's degree in international affairs at American University, Washington, D.C., last year.

This past year was taken up by service in the U.S. Army and employment in the public relations division of the Republican National Committee in the nation's capital.

Tripp is a graduate of Maryville College, Tenn., and earned his master's degree at Harvard. He was an Ohio public school teacher before joining the Mount staff in 1947.

To Aid Student Teachers

In his position as associate professor in the department of education, Tripp will carry a pair of special responsibilities. He will assist in the supervision of the secondary student teachers, which number more than 60 during a full school year.

The task of supervision becomes more important as students will now spend an entire quarter teaching full - time compared to the old system of teaching just half a day.

Tripp will also serve as coordinator of Mount Union's program of audio-visual aids and services. He has been active in Mount Union committees, civic projects, church activities, and professional organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. Tripp reside at 2233 Ridgewood Ave., Alliance, and are the parents of four daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Jose, the former Joyce Ann Mosser of Chester, W. Va., will reside at 1111 S. Arch, Alliance. Mrs. Jose will teach at Alliance South Lincoln grade school.

Suspect Denies Firing Shot In Girard Slaying

YOUNGSTOWN — A 32-year-old Vienna Township man has admitted he was in the car when Robert Fleming was slain early Sunday but insists he did not shoot the Girard man down on a street corner.

The suspect gave himself up yesterday after two men held in the shooting named him as the killer. He was questioned throughout the day and clung to his story that he was only a passenger in the car which fled from the scene with several occupants after the killing.

The two Warren men held since early Sunday had been picked up near the scene. After long questioning, detectives said, they named the suspect.

Fleming, 26, was known to have a violent temper and had been needing the suspect for several hours. Fleming was hit in the face with a .38-caliber slug.

Employees of an Akron super market have identified the dead man and a Liberty Township hoodlum as the men who robbed them of $12,000 Saturday night. Liberty Township police arrested Clayton Grimmer on an armed robbery warrant issued in Akron and turned Grimmer over to Akron police yesterday afternoon. Youngstown police said that Grimmer was not involved in the shooting.

15 Names Added To Graduates List

A list of 15 students whose names were unavailable when the roster of Salem School of Technology graduates was printed in Tuesday's Salem News was released today by the SST office.

Rounding out the list of 65 students scheduled to receive diplomas Aug. 16 at the Junior High School auditorium are:

Dennis Keller, Jerry A. Lodge, Donald Manning, Richard F. Manning, David Mellinger, James Potts, John W. Smith Jr., Glenn P. Spencer, Dale Swartz, Gary Lee Watkins and Loran H. Weingart, all of Salem; George J. Kireta of Toronto; Jan C. Bendak and Frank Savor of Warren; and James Scott of Youngstown.

All are mechanical engineering majors.

Leetonia Ruritan Club Sets Chicken Barbecue

By JOHN THOMPSON

LEETONIA — Ladies Night will be observed by the Leetonia Ruritan Club at 7 p.m. Tuesday with a chicken barbecue at the Charles Stelts Lake on Route 558 just east of the Leetonia-Lisbon Rd.

Leetonia Firemen's Auxiliary has cancelled its bake sale scheduled for Saturday.

PRISCILLA CLUB will meet Thursday in the church parlor with Mrs. Orrin Deffenbaugh and Mrs. Albert Heinze serving on the entertainment committee.

L. C. B. A. of St. Patrick's Church will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday. There will be a recipe exchange. Mrs. Lucille Billet is chairlady.

Women of St. Paul's Church will be guests of the Women of Trinity Lutheran Church in Washingtonville at 7:30 p.m. Monday. Chaplain Dale L. Kohr of the Lutheran Service Society will be speaker. Brillhart-Bixler Missionary Society will not meet Monday.

THURSDAY EVENING Bible Study will be held from 8 to 9 p.m. Aug. 15.

"How Great is your God?" was the topic presented by Dennis Holloway at the outdoor meeting of the St. Paul's Luther League Sunday at Patterson's Lake. Swimming was held before and after refreshments and the topic presentation.

Sydney Stull is a guest of her grandparents, Pastor and Mrs. T. P. Laughner, while her parents, Dr. and Mrs. James R. Stull, are visiting in Baltimore with a fellow missionary doctor and his family who are on a three-year leave of absence for specialized study.

Orioles Score Early To Knock Off Indians 6-4

Gentile Socks 2 Home Runs

Tribe's Whitfield, Held Blast Homers

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Cleveland Indians outthrewed the Orioles and got solid pitching from Early Wynn, Pedro Ramos and Jerry Walker, but the Tribe still went down to defeat, 6-4, Tuesday night.

The big damage had already been done when Wynn came in to relieve Barry Latman with nobody out in the first inning. The first four Orioles to come up slammed singles off Latman. Then Jim Gentile cleared the bases with his 18th homer of the season.

Gentile hit another homer in the sixth, and that was the only hit given up by the Cleveland relief crew.

Fred Whitfield hit two homers for the Indians and Woodie Held hit one, but all three came with the bases empty.

Robin Roberts, who had lost four straight to the Indians since coming into the American League last year, was tagged for nine hits but finished strong.

The Baltimore right-hander made a fine play in the sixth inning that helped preserve the victory margin. Willie Kirkland sent a perfect drag punt down the first base line. Roberts raced over to field the ball and dove for first base directly in Kirkland's path.

It was the only possible way to make the putout, and he nipped Willie by inches. Then Whitfield came up and hit his 13th homer of the season.

The Indians started off with a bang. Tito Francona and Larry Brown hit consecutive singles. With one out, Whitfield walked to fill the bases, but the Indians were able to squeeze out only one run. Francona scored when Max Alvis forced Whitfield, and John Romano flied out to end the inning.

Held hit his 13th homer of the season in the second inning to trim the Baltimore lead to 5-2. Whitfield's sixth inning blast made it 5-3, but Gentile came back in the bottom of that inning with his homer off Pete Ramos. Whitfield's eighth inning smacked ended the scoring.

Jim Grant opposes Milt Pappas tonight.

Hobbycraft, Stark's Win Junior Contests

A two-hit pitching performance by Larry Kachner sparked Hobbycraft to an 8-5 victory over the Jaycees in a Salem Junior Baseball Class H contest at uckey Field Tuesday.

Stark's BColonial Attie edged CIO 1538 6-4 at Reilly Field and VFW battled CIO 3816 to an 8-8 tie in a Class E fray at Centennial North.

Hobbycraft broke a 2-2 tie in the second to score a run to put it ahead to stay.

Kachner led the winners with two doubles and he tallied twice. Mike Cosgrove and Mike Lutz were the only Jaycee batters to get hits.

Stark's took a 3-0 lead in the initial inning on two walks and an error. The winners were out-hit by the losers 6-3. Pitchers Ron Libb and Warren Washington combined to strike out 13 of the losers' batters.

Ed McQuiston had a double and single for CIO 1538. Tom Warren connected for two singles.

VFW down 8-2, picked up six runs in the last two innings for the tie. Larry Foster had a double and two singles and Doug Plaster homered for VFW.

Dave Thomas had a pair of doubles and a single, while Denny Rhodes and Reed Votaw each had two singles for CIO 3816. Bob Luttmier clouted a triple and single.

Mauch Given New Contract By Phillies

By RALPH BERNSTEIN PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"It was the furthest thing from my mind," said Gene Mauch of his new two-year contract as manager of the young Philadelphia Phillies.

Mauch was summoned in uniform, from the clubhouse by the Phils' general manager, John Quinn.

Quinn handed the 37-year-old Californian a contract through the 1965 season, and although the terms were not disclosed, Mauch is believed to be in the $40,000 category.

"I'm proud of the fact that owner Bob Carpenter and Quinn think there has been some progress and it's going to get progressively better and I'm the guy they want to be around while it happens," said Mauch.

A man of fierce pride, Mauch also is very matter of fact about things. As one man put it, if Gene were elected President he'd probably say, "Nice."

Mauch agreed with an observation that his Phillies came to life the hard way, after losing a doubleheader to the hapless New York Mets in the Polo Grounds June 23.

Observed Mauch, "It's the same as with an individual hitter. Sometime he has to hit the bottom of the barrel before he starts going good. We started playing better after losing those two to the Mets."

Since that date the Phillies have won 27 of 40 games and have moved from eighth place to sixth, a game out of the first division. In some quarters they are considered a pennant contender.

Mauch explained he is particularly pleased with his new tenure because the Phillies are a young team, improving each year.

Mauch took over as manager of the Phillies in the third game of the 1960 season after Eddie Sawyer resigned. The Phillies finished last in 1960 and 1961.

The Phillies last year posted the winningest record in the major leagues through the final six weeks of the season, advancing from the cellar to seventh place and earning Mauch National League Manager of the Year honors.

Summer Cage Results

The Bearcats proved their overall strength without the services of two of their most formidable players by knocking off Tom's Sunoco 72-54 in the Centennial Basketball League.

Sparks Specs led all the way to edge Lisbon AC 74-72 in another clash, and the Raiders clipped the Sophomore Stars 76-48.

It was the seventh straight win for the Bearcats who were playing without Don Davidson, 6-5, and Woodie Deitch, the team's top scorer.

Dan Krichbaum took up the scoring slack and tossed in 24 points. John Borrelli connected for 18 and Bill Beery finished with 16 for the winners.

Tom's Sunoco (3-4) fell behind 18-10 in the initial period and slipped back to 36-26 at intermission. The losers retaliated to cut the deficit to 46-40 at the end of the third period.

Bob McMaster netted 24 points to pace Tom's. Dave Hunter swished the nets for 12 markers and Fred Phillips canned 10.

Public Links Tourney Gets Under Way

By HAL PARIS SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) —

Firing began in earnest today as 240 golfers from all sections of the Buckeye State started shooting for honors in the 30th Ohio Public Links Golf Tournament.

The huge field challenges Springfield's Snyder Park and Reid Memorial courses in two 18-hole qualifying tests today and Thursday.

The 60 low scorers, and all ties for the 60th spot, advance to Friday's 36-hole marathon final.

A new champion is assured since 20-year-old Tom Weiskopf of Bedford, an Ohio State student who has captured the classic the last two years, is not competing.

But three former winners are among the crown seekers. They are Ralph Schneider of Cleveland, who won in 1949; Dick Rhyen Sr. of Columbus, who captured the event in 1941, and Art Todd of Columbus, winner of the 1959 tourney.

In today's first round qualifier, half the field played at Snyder while the other half tackled the new Reid Memorial layout. They will switch courses Thursday in second round activity.

The tournament committee has yet to decide on which of the courses the 36-hole finale will be played.

Of the 51 Ohio cities and towns represented in the tournament, host Springfield leads the pack with 42 entries.

Other hotshot linksters competing include William Podolski Sr. of Columbus, the 1941 runnerup; Lulu Sabotin of Warren, who finished second in 1961, and Steubenville's Ed Koski, the three-time national Polish kingpin.

The four-man city team title and the individual senior championship will be decided on the opening 36 holes.

In a tuneup event at Snyder Park Tuesday, Sabotin and Walt Duda of Warren paired for a winning best-ball score of 65 in amateur-amateur competition. Low individual among the 172 players participating was Paul Flora of Springfield with a four-under-par 68.

Berlin 4-H Club Plans Horse Show at Canfield

The Berlin Boots and Saddle 4-H Club will hold a horse show at the Canfield fairgrounds Sunday at 1 p.m. A total of 12 events is scheduled.

Only 4-H Club members of Mahoning County are allowed to enter. Ribbons will be awarded to the winners in each event and a trophy will be given to the high point club.

Mays' Hot Bat Sparks Giants To 3-1 Victory; Dodgers Dump Chicago 4-1

By BOB GREEN Associated Press Sports Writer

He may have been Woeful Willie for a while, but there's no doubt that he's once again the Magnificent Mays.

Willie admitted at All-Star Game time that he was pretty woeful about his sub-par .271 batting average, far below his .315 lifetime mark and one of his poorest half-year showings in the majors.

But the San Francisco Giant centerfielder in the last few weeks has been the Mays of old. At the moment he's in one of his periodic batting binges, with a 10-game streak in which he's batting .400. That spurt has boosted his average to .290 and has helped keep the Giants in the running in the National League.

Willie had three hits, including a triple, and scored once Tuesday in the Giants' 3-1 victory over Houston, which kept them in a tie with St. Louis for second place, five games back of leading Los Angeles.

The Dodgers kept their lead with a 4-1 triumph over the Chicago Cubs. St. Louis held off New York's Mets 4-3, Pittsburgh blanked Milwaukee 3-0 and Cincinnati and Philadelphia split the Reds winning the first 6-4 in 10 innings and the Phillies the nightcap 7-1.

Mays' three-hit performance against the Colts gave him six hits in the last two games and 18 for 45 in his current streak. In that stretch, he has scored 13 runs driven in 11 and had two doubles, two triples and six homers, boosting his season total to 28.

Jim Duffalo, 4-0, topped the Colts on six hits, but needed the sharp relief help of Don Larsen in the ninth.

Shortstop Maury Wills stroked four straight hits, including a double in leading the Dodgers over the Cubs. Don Drysdale won his 14th.

St. Louis had 11 hits, but had to work hard to stand off the Mets, who were down 4-1 but scrambled back. The Cards scored their first run on a fielders choice when Stan Musial beat a throw to first on a potential double play grounder and their second on a wild pitch. The third was set up by a wild pitch and the fourth was moved into position by a base on balls.

Detroit Wallops Boston 10-1; Twins Roll 5-1

Wilhelm's Wildness Hands A's 4-3 Win Over Chisox; New York Splits

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

Hoyt Wilhelm the 40-year-old knuckleball specialist on whose aging arm rest the American League hopes of the Chicago White Sox, confused batter, catcher and official scorer alike in a 4-3 loss to Kansas City Tuesday night.

The score was tied 3-3 going into the bottom of the ninth when Wilhelm let go with a flutterball that flew past batter Gino Cimoli for a third strike and flicked past Camilo Carren and his versized catcher's mitt for what was scored a passed ball. Cimoli wound up on first and Wilhelm wound up under a shower after another wild pitch. Cimoli eventually scored the decisive run on a single by George Alusik off Jim Brosnan and promptly told the official scorer the pitch on which he struck out was four feet wide of the plate.

The passed ball ruling was changed and Wilhelm was credited with another wild pitch to go along with his 2-7 record and 2.90 earned run average. And that is part of the reason the White Sox trail front-running New York by eight games.

The Yankees got a brilliant pitching performance from Stan Williams, who hurled a 1-0, one-hit shutout over Washington after the Senators won the opener of a twinnight 8-5 on a four-homer barrage against Whitey Ford.

Third-place Baltimore, 8 1/2 back, whipped Cleveland 6-4 as Jim Gentile drove in four runs with a pair of homers. Detroit rookie George Smith collected a triple and two doubles in a 10-1 wallop of Boston and Minnesota downed the Los Angeles Angels 5-1.

Wilhelm got his chance for a victory when a two-run homer by Charlie Maxwell tied the score in the top of the ninth.

Chuck Cottier rapped two homers, including a three-run shot in the sixth that snapped a 5-5 tie, and Don Lock and Chuck Hinton one each for the Senators in the first game as Ford lost his third straight in quest of victory No. 17.

In the nightcap, Williams allowed only a double by Don Blas-

Only 4 Teams Remain In Competition

All-Stars, Am-Vit Triumph In District Softball Event

Only four teams remain in the district softball tournament following action at Kelley Field Tuesday night.

Carroll County All-Stars eliminated Smithfield 12-2 and East Liverpool Am-Vit turned back Sunrise Supply 8-1.

Thursday night's card finds defending champion Salem Old Dutch in a skirmish with Stepanic's at 8:15, while the Carroll County All-Stars battle the Am-Vits at 7.

A two-run home run by Ed West gave Smithfield a 2-0 lead in the top of the first against the All-Stars last night.

The winners tied the score in the bottom of the initial frame, then exploded for five markers in the second on three singles, a double and triples by Harold Moyer and Don Reed.

John Dunlap's two-run homer tied it in the first. Butch Clark, who had three hits, blasted a homer in the sixth. Reed collected two triples and a single.

Milt Christian paced the losers with two singles. Fred McGee and Ray Dalton each had a triple. Jack Thayer led the Am-Vits with two home runs and a single.

College Stars To See Action With Cleveland

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—Three College All-Star players are scheduled to see action in the exhibition game between the Cleveland Browns and the Detroit Lions Saturday night.

Cleveland Coach Blanton Collier said he will use Tom Hutchinson, an offensive end, and defensive tackle Jim Kanicki. Detroit Coach George Wilson said he will use Daryl Sanders, the former Ohio State tackle who did a great job of blocking the rugged Green Bay Packers in the All-Star game.

Wilson hopes Sanders will help beef up his offensive line and has moved Dan Larose from tackle to guard to make room for the rookie.

The team facing the Browns in the exhibition opener will be made up mostly of veterans. Except for the suspended Alex Karras, the entire Detroit defense is back.

9 IN MEMORIAM
IN MEMORY of Amy Reichenbach who died Aug. 7, 1963.
We are sad within our memory. Lonely are our hearts today. For the one we loved so dearly has forever been called away. We think of her in silence. No eye may see us weep. But silent tears are shed. When others are asleep. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Reichenbach, Mrs. Pearl Swenningson, and Miss Thelma Swenningson.

A word from THERON at the Country Store

On August 17th the Hope Friendly Circle is putting on a Pennsylvania Dutch chicken and ham supper at the South Side Elementary School, Columbiana-New Waterford Road.

These people really know how to cook good food. They should, they were brought up on a farm, used to cook for the threshers.

I got two tickets to this affair myself and I am looking forward to a very good feed.

Try Boeuf En Brochette For Cookout

For your next cookout, why not plan for something other than the customary steak, hamburger, or hot dogs?

Kabobs, for example. Actually, most of our popular meats are greatly enhanced when served on a skewer in combination with other compatible foods. There are many possible variations of these delicious and easy-to-prepare meals, and Boeuf en Brochette is a tasty example. Because men are such notorious lovers of beef, onion, garlic, and other seasonings, boeuf en brochette is one kabob dish the men in your family will especially appreciate and may insist upon cooking themselves.

BOEUF EN BROCHETTE
2-3 cup salad oil, 1/4 cup vinegar, 2 1/2 teaspoons salt, 2 1/2 teaspoons Italian seasoning, 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper, 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder, 2 1/2 teaspoons instant minced or chopped onion, 2 1/2 pounds sirloin steak, cut into 1 1/2 inch cubes, 2 cans (15 1/2 oz.) boiled onions, 2 large green peppers, cut into 1-inch square, 8 medium-sized mushrooms, or 4 small tomatoes cut in halves.

Combine first seven ingredients and pour over beef cubes. Cover dish and let stand 3 to 4 hours at room temperature, or overnight in refrigerator. Alternate cubes of beef, onions, and green pepper on 8 skewers. Brush with marinade and broil until meat is done to desire. Brush during cooking with marinade. Add mushrooms or tomatoes to skewers during last few minutes of cooking. Serves eight.

Pears Are Star In Dessert

Westerners are outgoing people as a rule. They usually have a zest for living. That, of course, means they enjoy good eating and are masters of using their own products, their Bartlett pears in this case, in really delicious ways.

An old friend in Palo Alto, wife of a professor at Stanford University, sent us this bright recipe:

PEAR MELBA CHEESE PIE
3 fresh California Bartlett pears, 1 1/4 cups water, 2-3 cup sugar, 1 envelope plain gelatin, 1 package (10 oz.) frozen red raspberries, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 package (8 oz.) cream cheese, 1/4 cup milk,

1 baked, cooled 9-inch pie shell. Pare, halve and core pears. In a large shallow pan, combine water and 1-3 cup sugar; bring to a boil. Add pear halves; cover and cook until pears are fork-tender. Meanwhile, sprinkle gelatin over 1/4 cup syrup from raspberries to moisten. Remove pears from pan and cool. Stir 3/4 cup boiling pear liquid into gelatin. Add 1-3 cup sugar, lemon juice and salt; stir until dissolved. Blend in raspberries and their syrup. Chill until mixture mounds on spoon. Combine cheese and milk, reserving 1-3 cup for garnish; spread remainder into bottom of pie shell. Pour two-thirds of gelatin crumbs.

Gasper A. Miller vs David Stokes; judgment by confession on cognovit note for plaintiff for $572.61 and costs.

Donna J. Stewart vs Jack Stewart; temporary custody of six minor children awarded to plaintiff; defendant ordered to pay $40 a week toward support pending final disposition.

Jennie Neff vs Archie Neff; temporary custody of minor children awarded to plaintiff defendant ordered to pay $30 a week toward support pending final hearing.

Vivian J. Crowl vs Paul L. Crowl; temporary custody of three minor children awarded to plaintiff; defendant ordered to pay $35 a week toward support pending final disposition.

Helen L. Dilling vs Jesse F. Dilling; temporary custody of two minor children and exclusive possession of the residence and household goods awarded to plaintiff; defendant ordered to pay $20 a week toward support pending final disposition.

Ruth W. Wilson, Tallahassee, Fla., vs Wilbur Hayes Wilson, Pensacola, Fla.; petition to recover judgment of $1950 returned in Escambia County, Fla., on June 28.

Common Pleas Court Docket Increases

Columbiana County's two common pleas courts disposed of 66 cases during July, but the docket showed a net increase of 31, according to Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey's report to the administrative assistant of the Ohio Supreme Court.

On July 1 there were 815 cases pending, and 97 new cases were filed, making a total of 912. During the month, disposal of 66 cases left 846 pending Aug. 1.

Three traffic point system cases were filed and four were disposed of.

The court of appeals docket remained the same at five cases pending.

TO ATTEND MEETING
Albert P. Morris, manager of the Columbiana County Motor Club and a trustee of the Ohio State Automobile Association will attend a meeting of trustees in Toledo Aug. 12.

No-Bake Cookies Popular

Her children like sweet treats but she hates to bake on warm days. So writes Mrs. R. who keeps both herself and her youngsters happy at the same time with no-bake cookies.

Sounds like a good idea for other mothers with children home on vacation. Works like a charm.

JELLY-FILLED THUMBPRINTS
(Makes 4 dozen cookies)

1/4 cup butter or margarine, soft, 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 cup flaked or shredded coconut, 2 cups quick rolled oats, uncooked. Variety of jellies or preserves. Beat butter until creamy; add sugar and vanilla, beating until smooth. Stir in coconut and oats, mixing until well blended. (Dough will be quite stiff.)

Chill dough until easy to handle, about 1 hour. Shape dough to form balls 1 inch in diameter. Press center of each with thumb to make an indentation; fill with jelly or preserves. Store in refrigerator.

PEANUT BUTTER DROPS
(Makes 2 1/2 dozen)

1/2 cup cream-style peanut butter, 16 large marshmallows, 1/4 cup butter or margarine, 3 tablespoons milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 cup coarsely chopped peanuts,

1 cup quick rolled oats, uncooked. Melt peanut butter, marshmallows, butter and milk in covered double boiler; stir occasionally. Add vanilla, peanuts and oats, blending well. Drop by teaspoons onto waxed paper, then store in refrigerator.

Skewer cookery: thread chicken livers and small mushrooms on small skewers. Brush with French dressing and broil on one side; turn, brush with more dressing and finish broiling.
